Prince of Wales's Findon Grey Shales Is Best Sire of All the Army Horses Seen at the London Hackney Show

NO DOCKED HORSES

Sets Example to Breeders by Exhibiting Stallion With Natural Tail.

Descendants of Wortley Bell Sweep the Ring at Agricultural Hall.

ittended the thirty-sixth London Hack-nev Show when in England a few weeks tree years, the war having forced the in 1917 and 1918.

he Prince of Wales was an excibitor, scales having won first prize in the class or stallions suitable for breeding army rses. Moorland Shales, a three-yearcal colt of his own rearing, was fourth the same class. Miss Newborg said I horses shown by the Prince had long opposed to docking.

among those exhibited, George Watson the show, or Teanock, N. J., having shown Nestlecown Fuigh-a-Ballagh, reared by the little J. Campbell Thompson of Mama-toneck, while Capt. Bertram W. Mills of ican exhibitors and breeders. The secthe British Army exhibited Black Marito, formerly Seaton Shadow, a five-

Ham H. Moore of New York. classes impressed Miss Newborg torest to American horsemen and horseen, not the least of which was the hemisphere. aning performance of Melbourne me, a full brother to Mrs. F. P. Garharness pony Hamilton Flame. at was champion of the last National Show in New York. Fame is erven years old, but like his fourteen-year-old brother he is still going strong. e defeatted all comers in the open for harness ponies under 1s hands Melbourne, a half-sister to both was imported from England by ties E. Coxe of Philadelphia just be-the war and was a big winner at the nal and other American shows in Herald.

family from which these three champion harness ponies sprung all but is wept the ring in London this year. Fusee, an eight-year-old son of Melicurne Fame and Melbourne Belle, by Eucressful, won the open class for pony ions shown in hand, while Braishd Lucifer and Bricket Fusileer, both hem sons of Fusee, were the wins in the classes for three-year-olds d two-year-olds. And in addition to tough Ideal won the class for fillies. It is of interest to note that Melbourne me, Hamilton Flame and Belle Mel-urne were all from the same dam. ortley Bell, a daughter of Sir Horace d Lovelorn, by Berkeley Adonia, while thourne lielle, the dam of Fusee, was from Wortley Bell, the dam of How the horse world grows smaller from there was again brought by the victory of Slashing Dorothe class for brood mares exceed-2 hands. Flash Dorothy, the the London winner, is also the Romping Flash, a stallion that the championship of the National Show in New York in 1916 for Trumun of Bushnell, Ill. Slashrothy was exhibited by Sir Lees les, president of the English Hack-Horse Society, who bred and exthe winner, Salford Victor, in class for stallions not exceding 15.2 This six-year-old chestnut is of Hopwood Viceroy, the horse that Horse Show in New York when war broke out in 1914.

IN FROM HOLLAND TO BUY TROTTERS

J. D. M. Schuyl Says New Mar- May 1. ket Is Opening in Spain for American Horses.

M. Schuyl of Rotterdam came in export to Holland. He expects this week. He has been in the Iwenty years or more and has way many good ones, the fastest Dorothy Hansborough, He said vesterday that he saw 2:03%, and Harrod's Creek, n Antwerp a few weeks ago. h Anwerp a lew weeks ago. re taken over in December, h Manrico, 2:07½. The last allion nearly killed two at-on the ship, Mr. Schuyl said. wn as a maneater before he as bred by a woman.

little prospect of a revival.

HANDICAPS THE JOCKEYS.

seph Palmer, Robert Swim, George by General Knight; H. L. Handy of James McLaughlin, Isaac Mur-Springfield, Mass., by Native Girl; C. H. loyd Hugnes and Edward Garri-Sears of Fall River, Mass., by Great Experiment; J. W. Linnehan by Adewhile Evans and Hughes laide Guy, and A. Albright Jr. of Newark, by Sunbridge.

TIMELY GOSSIP OF HORSE SHOWS

FOR FUTURE KING American Judges Invited to Officiate at London.

Reginald C. Vanderbilt, president of the American Hackney Horse Society and the Association of American Horse Shows, has been invited to judge harness horses at the International Horse Show in London, beginning June 16. John McE. Bowman, one of the directors of the National Horse Show Association WINNING PONY FAMILY the National Horse show Association and a judge of saddle horses at the Garden show last year, is on the list to judge the riding classes at the International. while M. Roy Jackson, who officiated classes at Olympia.

the prize winning jumper Killarney Jim, armies are already schooling their horses hunters and saddle horses, and including their horses.

Besides the coaching marathon for four-in-hand teams, there will be a twelve mile race for single harness horses at the London International this year. Mr. Euren says the recent hackney show brought out many new harness horses that will compete at Olympia. everal of them in the twelve mile endurance test, where condition at the The future King of England is award of the ribbons. Lord Lonsdale, Two American bred hackneys were ally supervising all arrangements fo president of the association, is person-

co. formerly Seaton Shadow, a five-ar-old son of Mariboro, bred by Judge Herald from Buenos Aires that the International Live Stock Exposition at Palermo will be held from September being among the best of the show, and to 12, and that entries must be in hand one there were several features of inhorse and cattle show of the southern

That the Argentine horsemen are no "pikers" is shown by the value of some of the prizes offered in the horse sec-tion of their international show. The prizes of $1,500 each for the best Arab ket, is not yet in evidence, owing to the stallion, the best thoroughbred, the best ice and snow everywhere, nor will it stallion, the best thoroughbred, the best criolla, a natice bresi; the best English ects to open the campaign at Devon in impossible to get Driftwood Blaze and his other saddle horses ready for the April shows in Brooklyn and New York. Mr. Hanley has two new horses to un-

Durland's will take place next Wednesday evening, with prizes for the equestrians whose costumes are adjudged best. An "affinity race" is among the interesting events on the programme.

An indoor pole tournament is to be among the new features of the New York Spring Horse Show at Durland's Patrick's Day in the evening. These will Riding Academy on April 27, 28 and 29. Bil the time as we export trotters to Six teams have been invited to take part in the play, which will be two periods of ten minutes each night. West Point, Squadron A. Durland's, the Riding Club, the Brooklyn Riding and Driving Club and thet Governors Island teams are expected to take part,

> A cup valued at $250 is to be offered at the New York Spring Horse Show for any jumper that can beat old Con-fidence's record of eight feet and onehalf an inch over the bars. There will be prizes of $75 and $35 respectively for the first and second horses in the high jumping class, regardless of the record.

Prize lists for the Brooklyn Horse Show, which opens the season on April 11: Sire is Axworthy, 2:1514, a worthy 21. cmbrace fifty-nine classes, of which real of Peter the Great, 2:0714, as it wenty-two are for saddle horses and progenitor of extreme speed, while his penies, eighteen for harness horses and dam is Nervolo Belle, the dam of Peter ponies and thirteen for jumpers. The entries will close on April 10.

> The Early Risers' Riding Club held its annual meeting last week and elected Richard E. Sause president for the seventh year in succession, McCauley Smith vice-president, August V. Lam-latic on Friday to buy tret. Thomas W. Murphy's Big Stable Missing.

EASTERN TROTTERS FEW AT CLEVELAND

> noticeable feature of the list of nomi-nations for the first Grand Circuit meet-perienced buyers for the New York ing of the season at Cleveland, on July market. These semi-weekly sales in East 5-10. For the first time in years the big Twenty-fourth street are presenting untraining stable of Thomas W. Murphy is not represented in the early closing races, nor are those of A. B. Cox, W. B. buyers seem to be making the most of Dickerman and some other amateur breeders who usually campaign young trotters on the big mile tracks. The severe winter, with its heavy snowfall, exchange. Mr. Watson paid all Northern trainers have been shown the horse. Chester, 2:07, 1200 and the others lower Among the twenty-one trotters of the attending the London Hackney be lorseman from Holland saw lorseman from Holland saw is countrymen pay 2:000 guineas, for an English hackney pony first prize. The name of the delphia, and E. Colorado and Busy's Lassie, owned by Barton Pardee of Atlantic City, are the only ones from east the delphia, and then sells direct to the users.

A. M. Stein & Co. of Brooklyn report an active market in farm horses for is bred by a woman.

Market for American trotting trotters of the 2:14 class, only three maning in Spain, according to Eastern horses are among the twentyspening in Spain, according to Eastern horses are among the venty. In Austria and Germany, five entered. These are Harvest Duches, were sold a few years ago, eas, owned by Louis Niedhart of Jersey east on the pieces by the war and ston's Saugerties Farm, and John W.

three entries, among which are the East-ern horses Col. Bidwell, owned by Fred F. Field of Brockton, Mass.: Jay mard at the Top.

Mack, owned by George McKinney of last week's auction.

Boston, and Hazel Kestner, owner by since the civil war W. S. Vos-J. M. Winder of Bristol, Pa. In the Fasig Purse of $2,000 for Hayward was probably the supplished jockey who has appoint the American turf." Mr. David M. Look of New York, is represented. ilists among the other famous sented by his home bred trotter Day-

VAUCLAIN HORSES

Winners.

Miss Constance Vauclain of Rosemont. Pa., has ordered a dispersal of her show horses. Patrick O'Connell, manager of in the jumping classes at the Garden, her stable, came over from Finadelphia will be one of the judges in the same last week and arranged to hold the sale her stable, came over from Philadelphia at Durland's Riding Academy, probably on the evening of April 13. Frank F. Euren, secretary of the in-ternational Horse Show, writes to The in the horse world. The stable is one of SUN AND THE NEW YORK HERALD that the largest and strongest in the country. for the military classes at the exhibition such noted winners as The Whip. Land to be held in London next June, and he boneful that the United States and Rusper Calypso. These were all among the boneful that the United States and Rusper Calypso. never seen quite the same degree of interest in horses at any other exhibition at home or abroad. It was held at Assicultural Hall for the first time in part in the military horse show there. horses out last season, while The Minstrel led all other saddle horses with twenty-seven firsts and three champion-

> Miss Vauclain is the daughter of Sam-uel M. Vauclain, head of the Baldwin Locomotive Works. Though one of the youngest of exhibitors, she has been one of the most successful, as well as one of the largest. Her norses and ponies have helped to make many of the shows. and there will be universal regret if her sale means her retirement.

SEEN AND HEARD IN HORSE MARKET

of Sociedad Rural Argentina Trade Guessing at Causes of Abnormal Winter Demand.

again last week in the Monday and The sixtieth amendment proposed will Thursday auctions at Fiss, Doerr & Carprovide for a strip of soft earth conroll's. Six carloads of fresh ones were on either side of the payement put dow in Monday's sale, along with a big run for motor vehicles, the same as is no of seasoned offerings, yet the demand provided for in this state outlasted the supply. Mr. Fiss says the The Horse Association present situation is without precedent in sents tursiness interests capitalized his twenty odd years of experience in $100,000,000 or more, has indursed to Twenty-fourth street. The farm trade, movement for a half mile trotting trace which usually starts up the spring marcriolla, a natice breed; the best English criolla, a natice breed; the best English hackney. American trotter, Shetland, hunter and heavy draughter. Prize lists can be had by addressing the horse department of The Sun and New York firsh horses as usual at this time in the year. Just what it means is difficult to tary of the Master Horseahoers Protection. horse is "coming back" at the expense May. He said when in New York a few of the motor trucks. Others assert that days ago that the weather had made it New York is replacing the thousands of impossible to get Driftwood Blaze and seasoned horses sold off in the last year of strife and strikes, while still others attribute the boom in trade to the fact that the market is free from rejected or surplus army horses for the first time in

> By hard work H J Tranter of the Fasig-Tipton Company has rounded up about 300 horses for this week's blue ribbon sale at Madison Square Garden. But he growing scarcity of good trotters days sale, and so he is going to offer two consignments of saddle horses on St. be for the most part using horses as dis tinguished from show horses, and they are horses that have been through the apable hands of our old friend Cook, a Kentucky horseman who schools the until he can sometimes ride them without bit or bridle anywhere he wants

The yearlings from Walnut Hall Farm and the two-year-olds by J. Malcolm Forbes, 2:08, will attract buyers from all over the country, but the star of the sale seems to be the four-year-old trotter Axvolo, 2:07%, consigned by James Snell of Lexington. If the foreign buyrs and the breeders are up to snuff this olt should bring a long price, for trotters better bred than he is do not grow Fis sire is Axworthy, 2:15 4, a worthy rogenitor of extreme speed, wh Volo. 2:02: Volga, 2:0449, and Worth Volo, 2:081, all of which earned records below 2:10 at two years old.

George W. Oliver's sale of pole pon at Durland's on Friday evening will be watched with unusual interest as throw-ing light on the market for animals of this type. Unless all signs fail there is Smith vice-president, August V. Lambert treasurer and Arnold Miltenberg ing light on the market for animals of the ride at Durland's about April 1, and club ride at Durland's about April 1, and going to be a great revival of polo this year, and an equally great shortage of the annual ride to the Abbey about good mounts, the breeding sections have ing been almost stripped of raw materia by the army buyers in the last five years ponics from Chester Bar ranch, Sal-Idaho, are due to arrive at Dur land's on Tuesday or Wednesday, and in-tending buyers are invited to try them out before the sale.

Consignments to Fiss, Doerr & Car-The absence of Eastern horses, and approximate five hundred fresh and sea-particularly those owned in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and vicinity, is a lots shipped in from the West by the about ten days ago. The stallion law made it almost impossible in many places to jog horses out of doors this gasson, which may account for the carbange. Mr. Watson paid of the horse. Chester, 2:07. A. C. Long of the White Star Farm, > an active market in farm horses for early spring work on Long Island during the week just ended. The Steins recently brought in two carloads of truck horses from Illinois to supply their city trade.

Linnehan's perennial trotter, M. L. J., from South Weymouth, Mass.

The Edwards Purse of $3,000 for pacers of the 2:08 class, has twenty-of fresh Western chunks and drafters in nevi Wednesday's sale at the Comabout 200 work horses, including a lot in next Wednesday's sale at the Com munipaw avenue stables, in Jersey City Several buyers from the South attended

> M. B. Newcomb, 924 Seventh avenue is showing some breedy and brilliant saddle bred horses recently brought in > work horses purchased direct from the farmers by their own buyers in Iowa

HORSE ASSOCIATION HARNESS RACING

TO BE DISPERSED Secretary Murphy Making Countrywide Campaign.

> William E. Murphy, secretary of the Iorsa Association of America, is making a tour of the country in the interest f the new organization and its work When in Kentucky a few weeks ago he found a bill pending before the Legislature which provided for the expendi-ture of something like $75,000,000 for improvement of the highways, and bough fifty-nine amendments had been offered none of these nor the original II made any provision for the con-Work horses went off like hot cakes struction of roads suitable for horses

W.E MURPHY

WATCH FOR HIM. The best trotter for the 1920 Stakes, sensationally fast trotter, ready to race and bred for a great sire.

AXVOLO 4 -2:07

By Axworthy, 2:1512, out of Nervolo Belle, dam of Peter Volo (4), 2:02; Volga (3), 2:0412, etc.

To Be Sold On Thursday, March 18,

BLUE RIBBON SALE Madison Square Garden.

FASSIG-TIPTON CO.,

31 East 27th St. New York,

Ship Your Horses

& Cattle Overseas Great Britain and Continent Atlantic Transport Line

New York-London. Red Star Line New York-Antwerp.

For Sailings, Rates, &c., Ask FREIGHT DEPARTMENT International Mercantile Marine Company 11 B'way, N. Y. Tel. Howling Green 2210

2 Pony Show Carriages FOR SALE

Madison Square Garden in Single, Pair and landem classes. Painted black, blue ining. Will be sold reasonably CHARLES R. HAMILTON 1121 Chestnut Street

M. B. NEWCOMB, 924 Seventh Ave.

50 Saddle Horses, Harness Horses, Hunters, Polo Ponies and Children's Ponies. Some Show Prospects. All My Horses Are Thoroughly Broken and Acclimated.

Satisfaction Guaranteed. W. H. Maddison Greenwich, Conn

TRIAL ALLOWED.

High Class Hunters, Saddle Horses and Children's Ponies. Every facility for Trial. TEL. CIRCLE 3809.

HAUTER'S RIDING SCHOOL 152 W. 54th.

Instruction day and evening; habits free Complete assortment of dependable horses, safely shod for snow and ice. Lessons in driving.

is showing some breedy and brilliant saddle bred horses recently brought in from Kentucky and Missouri. He reports quite a number of lookers in the last few days.

Heilbrunn & Kahn are keeping their big sales stable at Eleventh avenue and Sixtleth street filled with fresh Western work horses purchased direct from the

E. C. BURDICK

BREED your farm mares to the Percheron staillon Brilliant le Blane, 182,271; fee $20. Apply SPRING FARM, Tilly Feater, N. Y.

GROWS IN SOUTH

ing Numerous in Connection With District Fairs.

velopments of the day in the horse built trotting tracks on their grounds plying so rapidly that W. H. Gother, secretary of the National Trotting Association, says it will not be jong before the late fall meetings in Dixie will be almost sa numerous as they are now in the Northern States during the latter part of August and September. There are very tew meetings in the

but in the South harness racing can be conducted successfully until December without taking cold weather into consideration. This makes it possible to xtend the season's campaign five or six weeks for the owners of harness horses, and gives the Southern tracks an opporunity to attract a better class of hor han they could hope to get before the Northern campaign ended Every Southern State, with the possiole exception of Louisiana and Missisippl, was represented in the long list of late autumn meetings last year, and in some of the States where harness ago there were numerous meetings in

THE LONG LIVED SUFFOLK PUNCHES

Late Autumn Meetings Becom- England's Ancient Breed of Clean Legged Draught Horses Attain Great Age.

The growth of harness racing in the South is one of the noteworthy de-excels, if any rivals, the Suffolk Punch in point of longevity and constitutional vigor, Arthur Young, an English world. During the last few years many thority of a century ago, mentioned a of the Southern fair associations have farmer in Essex who had seventeen teams of these clean legged British draughters that had been working conand established annual meetings of tinuously for eighteen years. Young also three or four days. All of them seem mentioned Suffolk stallions that had been to have found the trotting races a drawing attraction, and the tracks are multity-one, and even, twenty-five years. A
Mr. Goodchild of Yeldham, England, is

HORSES-150

SUITABLE FOR EVERY PURPOSE, North after the first week in October, SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.

A.M. Stein & Co. 229 Washington St.

Tel. 9239-1 Main. BROOKLYN, N. Y For Farm or Country Estate. SUFFOLK PUNCH The Ideal Draught Horse. Clean Legs, Chestnut, Docile, Easy Keepers, Mature Early,

UPWEY FARMS racing was unknown only a few years Woodstock, Vermont,

POLO PONIES and PARK HACKS On Friday Evening, March 19, 1920, at 8 o'clock DURLAND'S RIDING ACADEMY

MR. GEORGE W. OLIVER Chester Barr Ranch, Salmon, Idaho,

Will Sell 40-VERY HIGH CLASS POLO PONIES AND PARK HACKS-40 AT PUBLIC AUCTION.

Mr. Oliver has wired: "Every horse will be offered and sold at sale to the gheat bidder." He recommends them as very high class pule ponies and many of em have played the game. They all rein right and left. They are gentle and ained to stand without being tied. They range from 142 to 15.2 hands. Mr. liver states: "It is my intention to send you about fifty horses every year and y aim is to make a market and satisfy the individual buyer."

These horses will be shown at Durland's Riding Academy from the 17th to me of sale.

Among the consignment many are by thoroughbreds or quarter horses

Part of Mr. Oliver's consignment in the set of the best of Mr. Oliver's consignment.

JIMMY OLIVER, has gelding, 14.2 hands, 6 years old.—This is one of the best broken points in 164no, tour fost hands and the best of mathers and affail of nothing; absolutely safe for any one to ride, and will stand all day with the reins over his head untied. This peny plays the game. Absolutely sound. This peny has wen the him rithon at the Samon Horse Shew for the past cars for handiness, conformation, speed and manners, and I cannot speal too highly of him.

TENDOY, Bay gelding, 15 hands, 6 years old.—This is one of the best broken ponies I have. This is an exceptionally broken pony, very fast, handy and the best of manners, good pole pony and absolutely sound.

IIAHA, chestnut mar. 113 hands, 6 years old.—This is a handsome mare, very well broken, very fast, handy and the bost of manners. This mare wears hereself well and is an exceptionally good poly pony. Absolutely sound.

KLICKLITAT, thestain gidding, 5 years old, 15 hands.—This is an exceptionally good pony in every respect. A handsome pony and wears himself well. This is also of the best port is in highe very fast, handy and well mannered. Any one can ride him, as there is not a thing he is afraid of. A line pole pony and can MOCNAX, grey griding, 14.1 hands, spears old.—This is a real peny and can have be seen to be sufficient.

can rids him, and like all ray police will stand united. Sound:

RANDDALLES, has mare, 15 hands, a years old.—A thoroughbred polo povery fast and handy and the heat of manners. This mare is out of a manner dane, who was an inheaten mare at half a mile in the Western Stat With a little more schooling this will be one of the best ponies in the courty. I have used this pour myself on the ranch all fall and claim her he one of the best.

be one of the best.

ETHAR: bay gilling, it hunds ? years old—This is an exceptionally quispony, absolutely besten and any chibi can ride him. This pony has playe the game and is easy to hit from For a beginner this is an ideal pony, a he will play the game nimeel and is sound.

ANASKAT, brown mare 14 is hands, it years old.—This is one of the handles ponies I have ever caned. She has heaps of speed and can outrun most o the ponies around here. She is a lovely reining pony and cany to hit from She is also a good hack, as she is thoroughly broken and is sound with at exception of a wire mark. round here. She is a lovely a good hack, we she is theroughly broken and is sound were a wire mark.

gelding, if hands, a years old — Here is another wonderful pony; gelding, if hands and has haps of manners. He is a very ig pony, with lots of conformation, and i think he is a whow pony; one and any one can ride him. If you want a real pony, don't miss flashy looking pony, with lots of conformation, and I think he is a show pony, plays the game and any one can ride him. If you want a real peny, don't miss this cane. He is sourd.

STELLACWOM, chosing selding, 14.1 hands, 5 years old.—This is a real high class peny and is by a thoroughbred herse, which accounts for his speed. He is a good reining peny, bit needs a little more achooling and when finished will be should challed for any company. He is ap excellent hank and mafe for any one to ride. I can strongly recommend this pony for any one who wants a top notch from for the coming season, is absolutely sound.

PLYALLUP, chestnut mare, 14.1 hands, a years old.—This pony is one of the handlest ponbes I have over owned and for any one who wants to play the game right this is the one who can do it. She is exceptionally fast, handly and the best of manners, she gallops close to the ground, which makes her cast is hit from it can strongly recommend this pony for a real handly peny and she is absolutely sound. This pony's sire was one of the fastest quarter ponless in the West.

KAHLOTUS, grey polding, 15.1 hands, a years old.—This is a real heavyweight back. Any one can ride him as he has the best of manners. He is equally as good in harness and you can't put him out of his place. There is never a road too long for him, other under madule or in harness, and for any one who wants a real ride this is 'u.'

WYNACD, chestrut geiding, 15.1 hands, a years old.—This is a nighter exceptionally good hach. He is a good ride and has heaps of manners. He also is good in harness and season to the ride of the play was a first to the season of the handler anywhere. This pony has been used at the time to what has heaps of manners. He also is good in harness and season has been used at the sums by my fanch foreman in Broaking other ponies. He is absolutely quiet and safe for any one to ride, and there is no heater playing pony in the country. She is very fast and one reton and there is no heater playing pony in the country. She is

Any one wishing catalogue for this sale, please send name and address to:

WM. DURLAND, 5 West 66th Street. 'Phone Col. 9100.

POLO PONIES AND PARK HACKS On Friday Evening, March 19, 1920, at 8 o'clock

DURLAND'S RIDING ACADEMY

MR. GEORGE W. OLIVER

Chester Barr Ranch, Salmon, Idaho Will Sell 40-VERY HIGH CLASS POLO PONIES AND PARK HACKS-40 AT PUBLIC AUCTION

Mr. Oliver has wired "Every horse will be offered and sold at Sale to the highest bidder." He recommends them as very high class pole poules and many of them have played the game. They all rein right and left. They are gentle and trained to stand without being tied. They range from 14.2 to 15.2 hands. Mr. Oliver states: "It is my intention to send you about fifty horses every year and my aim is to make a market and satisfy the individual buyer."

These horses will be shown at Durland's Ridling Academy from the 17th to time of Sale.

Mr. Oliver has placed this consizment under the personal supervision of Mr. C. E. Butler of Durland's Riding Academy. For any further information apply to Mr. Butler Mr. Oliver invites the public to come and try them. They will show for themselves Among this consignment many are by thoroughbreds or quarter horses. GEO. A. BAIN. Auctioneer.

Full Descriptions in Next Sunday's Sun-Herald. Anyone wishing estalogu-WILLIAM DURLAND, 5 West 66th St. Phone Col. 9100

-200 Horses at Auction-ON WEDNESDAY, MARCH 17, at 11 A.M. on the premises of the BERGEN HORSE COMPANY 515 Communipaw Ave., Jersey City, N. J.

140 Head consigned by local Hudson and Essex County owners, some good farm chunics among them.

20 Horses purchased especially for critical Eastern buyers; weighing from 1500 to 1900 lbs., all good, broke and used to hard work.

work in brewers' drays for twenty-three years without a break. The origin of he Suffolks is lost in the mists of the

HARNESS RACING NOTES.

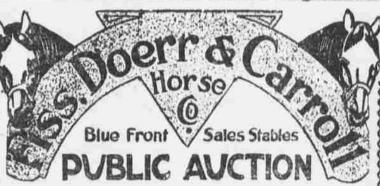

be the oldest of British draught breeds

Will Train His Trotters in Mineola Matinees.

Charles Welland is going to train his said to have taken four two-year-old as develop speed enough in professiona Suffolks into his stable and worked them races on Eastern half-mile tracks. He all for fifteen years before anyone of has nine horses in his stable and has them lost a day through sickness or engaged State S. Post to train for him from any other cause, while in London exclusively. The string includes Mint-the Suffolk horses have been known to mark, 2:11%; Mabel Axworthy, 2:15; Plancon, 2:14%; Scamp Spratt, 2:26%; Peter Gates, 2:29%, and the pacers Queen Ab-Middle Ages, but they are conceded to Windsor, Conn., will stick to the threen-five style of harness racing this year, despite the adoption of the three heat plan at every other track in the Bay When a proposal was tate circuit. made recently to impose the freak sys-tem on all tracks in the circuit, Windsor notified the others that Sage Park would withdraw and go it alone rather trotters and pacers in the matinees at than make "every heat a race and every Mincola this season and then start such race a joke."

EAST 24TH ST., LEXINGTON TO THIRD AV. "The Recognized Eastern Distributing Centre for Horses."

Auction Sales Mondays and Thurs days-Private Sales Every Day.

500 HEAD OF HORSES AT AUCTION TOMORROW

MONDAY, MARCH 15, AT 10 O'CLOCK. Complete Business Outfits, Trucks, Carriages, Harness, &c. TO THE HIGHEST BIDDERS WITHOUT RESERVE.

Special Consignments

ABOUT 11:30 A. M. The Walter Beam & Co.

have commissioned us to sel 5 Good Seasoned Work Horses, 2 Double Trucks, and Harness.

ABOUT IS NOON Carload of Choice Rugged Workers and Chunks

only on account of giving up the work of one of their many houses

This consignment is in the best of condition and are to be sold

They range in weight from 1,300 to 1,600 lbs each; have been worked in single and double harness and will move anything on wheels that any other animals their heft are expected to haul; guaranteed to fill the bill.

ABOUT 12:30 P. M.

Carload of Pennsylvania Horses These horses are acclimated, having worked up to the day of shipment. Weighing from 1,100 to 1,400 lbs. each, the short leg and short back type that will last. And they will be warranted "Wind and Work."

> ABOUT 1 P. M. W. W. Shubert, Oxford, Iowa,

25 Delivery, Express and Truck Horses Weights in this lot range from 1,100 to 1,500 lbs. each, and every animal is thoroughly broken and ready to go to work as soon as bought. There are singles and teams to suit most any purpose.

ABOUT 1:30 P. M. Galesburg Horse and Mule Co.

Galesburg, Ill.

Express, Delivery and Draught Horses This is a consignment of extra good horses with plenty of weight and finish, mated pairs of Grays, Roans, Bays and Sorrels; also some toppy wagon horses. This firm has been shipping to this market for some time and buyers of their horses have been well satisfied. They are for absolute sale and will be warranted "Wind

Our Written Guarantee Accompanies Every Warranted Horse and Permits of Trial Up to Noon Wednesday Entire Purchase Price Is Refunded if Animal Proves Other

Than as Represented. "WITH THE SIGN FOR A GUIDE YOU CAN'T GO WRONG" All Representations Guaranteed in Writing-TWO FULL DAYS FOR TRIAL. MAIN OFFICE, 133 EAST 14TH ST. TELEPHONE $100-MADISON SQUARE

Annual Auction of America's Equine Aristocracy

MARCH 17-18

250 HEAD 250

Class, for Track, Speedway and Road, and for Breeding.

TROTTERS AND PACERS WITH FAST RECORDS; GREEN TROTTERS OF GREAT SPEED AND PROMISE; HIGH BRED COLTS AND FILLIES WITH VALUABLE STAKE ENGAGEMENTS, ETC.

31-33 EAST 27TH ST. NEW YORK CITY

SPECIAL SALE OF

HIGH CLASS SADDLE HORSES

IN CONNECTION WITH THE BLUE RIBBON SALE MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

Wednesday Eve., March 17 Including Consignments from Fillmore Farm, Boston

18 Head of highly trained saddle and show horses, including winners at leading Horse Shows. 18

Hopewell Farm, Natick, Mass.

Six head of first class saddle horses

AND OTHER FIRST CLASS CONSIGNMENTS. SPECIAL CATALOGUE NOW READY. SEND IN YOUR NAME FOR A COPY.

FASIG-TIPTON CO. 31 East 27th Street New York City